Animals going missing, being injured and killed in this area

Have you seen anything suspicious?

There have been attacks and mutilations on cats, rabbits and/or foxes in this immediate area.

We strongly advise you to keep your cats/ rabbits in 24/7 if possible, or only let them out under supervision and certainly keep them in overnight.

If you see anyone behaving suspiciously with an animal or coaxing it with food, please call 101 and report it, with a full description of the person, under Metropolitan Police Operation Takahe (pronounced Takkahay). If you see anyone injuring, kidnapping or killing an animal, please call 999 and report it under the same operation code. Likewise if you see anyone with a knife or bladed weapon, dial 999.

If you see any domestic or wild animals who have been injured or found dead with: slashed neck/ decapitation, slashed belly, leg and/or tail removed or any other injury which looks like it is a knife wound, please contact us on 07961 030064 or 07957 830 490 immediately.

It is ABSOLUTELY VITAL that the body is safeguarded. We will come out, even if it is after hours to collect any body and/or body parts for examination by the vets working on this case. If the animal is still alive please take him or her straight to a vet for treatment and call us as soon as you can.

Any information received will be treated with the strictest confidence. A reward of £10,000 is offered for information leading to the successful conviction of the offender.
